How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

The Fund seeks income with a focus on tactical high yield strategies, investment grade credit, and dividend paying equities. For the fiscal year ended April 30, 2025, the Fund returned +6.99%, underperforming its benchmark, the Morningstar Moderate Conservative Target Risk Total Return Index, which returned +9.82. Strategy performance was led by stable gains in the money market and fixed income allocations, particularly from the Janus Henderson Flexible Bond Fund and Janus Henderson Mortgage-Backed Securities ETF. On a weighted basis, the Janus Henderson Responsible International Dividend Fund (+1.63%) and Janus Henderson Contrarian Fund (+1.45%) were the largest contributors to performance, while the Janus Henderson Growth and Income Fund (-1.04%) and Janus Henderson Research Fund (-0.88%) were the largest detractors with overall equity exposure detracting from relative performance. The Fund maintained a conservative positioning throughout the period with a high allocation to money markets, which helped preserve capital but lagged during the equity market's broader strength. Tactical allocation decisions and manager selection within fixed income added positively, while equity selection was a headwind. Overall, the Fund achieved solid absolute results while emphasizing capital preservation in a volatile market environment.
