How did the Fund perform during the reporting period?

The Fund provides a strategically managed, globally diversified equity allocation and holds diversifying allocations to real estate and commodities. For the fiscal year ended April 30, 2026, the Fund's Class I shares returned +20.38%, underperforming the Morningstar Aggressive Target Risk Index, which rose +26.26%. On a weighted basis, the iShares GSCI Commodity Dynamic Roll Strategy ETF (+2.83%) and MFS Growth Fund (+2.81%) were the largest contributors to performance, followed by the MFS Research Fund (+2.66%) and MFS Value Fund (+2.28%). While the diversified global approach and commodity exposure provided resilience and strong absolute gains in select areas, the overall equity market strength and certain value-oriented tilts weighed on relative results. The Fund continues to maintain broad exposure across equity styles, sectors, and geographies, with an emphasis on long-term capital appreciation through disciplined strategic allocation.
