

Hiring Blitz at The Pacific Financial Group, Inc. (TPFG)

Bellevue, WA, Release: 8/15/18

Glen Schreitmuller, James Molloy and Jason Luhan become latest additions to dynamic leadership team at wealthtech firm TPFG.

"We have made significant changes and additions to our team since the beginning of the year. Some of these changes were the result of our reorganization that closed on September 1, 2017, that brought together the Pacific Financial Group, Inc., The Elements Financial Group, LLC (TAMP) and ProTools, LLC (RiskPro). Other changes were made to strengthen the new group of companies, following the reorganization, in order to best position us for future growth. Overall, the goal of the new management team is to ensure that the Pacific family of companies has the best team and the right people doing the right jobs," said co-CEO's Megan Meade and Nick Scalzo.

Glen Schreitmuller has been hired as Chief Tech Officer and will act as Head of Product for RiskPro. Schreitmuller has 30 years in the Sales and Product Management business, including 11 years as the Vice President of Strategy for a SaaS-based $10MM financial services compensation management and managerial reporting solution. His responsibilities include managing the business development consultants and the internal software development group.

James Molloy is also joining the firm as Chief Administrative Officer. Molloy will oversee all business administration of the companies and their financial affairs. He is a Certified Public Accountant with 35 years of business experience, including serving in CFO roles in large multi-national companies and as the Corporate Controller for a publicly traded company with revenues in excess of $2 billion.

Jason Luhan comes aboard as Chief Compliance Officer. Luhan is an executive with 25 years of business experience, spending the past 10 years in various compliance and legal roles for registered investment advisers and broker/dealers, including Chief Compliance Officer, General Counsel and Chief Operating Officer. Jason holds the FINRA series 7, 65, 66, 99, 53 and 24 licenses.

TPFG is a subsidiary of Pacific Holdings.
